FALL PROGRAM NEWSLETTER #7

Oct. 17th, 2025

#RECandROLL

At this point the Conway Parks and Recreation Department's Fall programs are coming to an end. We finished up our 3rd-6th grade Intramural Soccer program this past Tuesday and all we have left is one scrimmage game and two big invitational tournaments. Today the 5th-6th grade team will play a scrimmage game at Fryeburg at 4:00 p.m. That will lead us into the annual Valley Cup tournament this Saturday. Conway Rec. will have a 3rd-4th grade and a 5th-6th grade team representing our department. Action will take place all day Saturday at the Middle School fields across the tracks here in Conway. Then the final soccer games of the Fall will take place on Saturday, Nov. 1st at the yearly Carroll County Rec. Dept. tournament held in Moultonborough for our 5th/6th graders.

The Field Hockey program still has games with Fryeburg next Monday and then each grade level, 3rd-4th and 5th-6th will have it's annual Parent/Kids game to finish up the season. Check the schedule on pg. 2 for the times.

Pond Hockey came to an end last Friday as they celebrated the 20th year of the program with commemorative shirts given to all participants at the end of the session. Congrats on 20 years of Pond Hockey!!!

That brings us to next Thursday night when the Flag Football champion will be crowned for the 2025 season. The final game of the night will include the two undefeated teams, the Cowboys and Bengals in a winner take all game.
